

At Thorpe Primary School, we currently teach phonics using the original Letters and Sounds programme. We are in the process of purchasing the little Wandle Letters and Sounds revised programme which we will begin to use in the summer term. The revised programme is a complete systematic synthetic phonics programme and provides a complete teaching programme.